Planning a Story

Use this picture to come up with a plan for a story.

What is the girls name?_____

Why is she at the beach?

How did she find the shell?

Who or what did the shell belong to?

What problem happens when she finds the shell?

How is the problem solved? Who help her?

Every story has a beginning, a middle and an end.

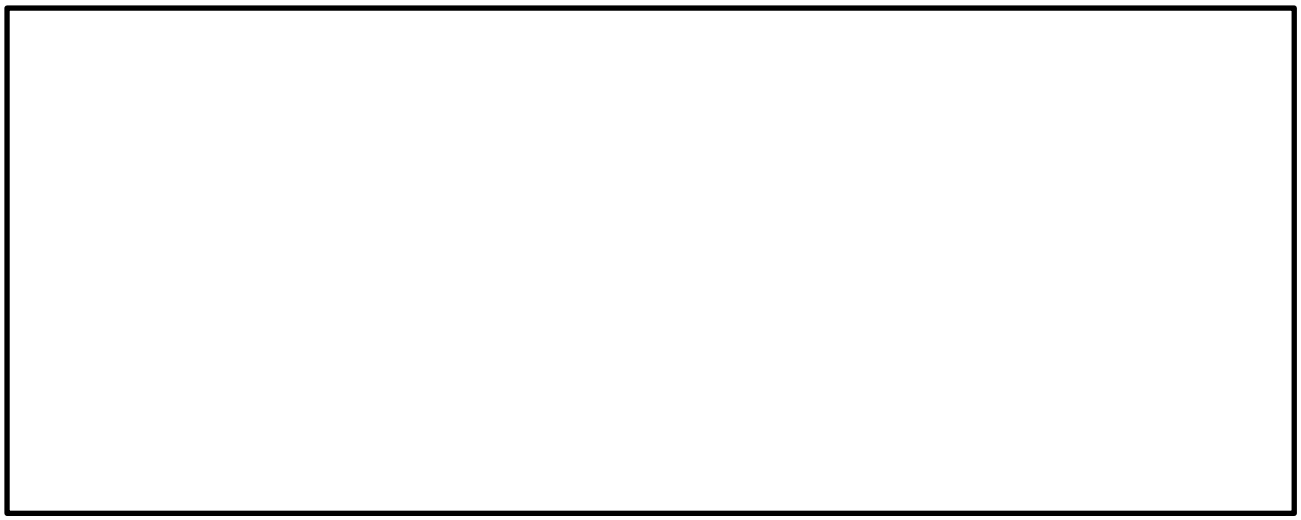

Thinking about your answers to the questions above, draw a picture to plan the order of events.

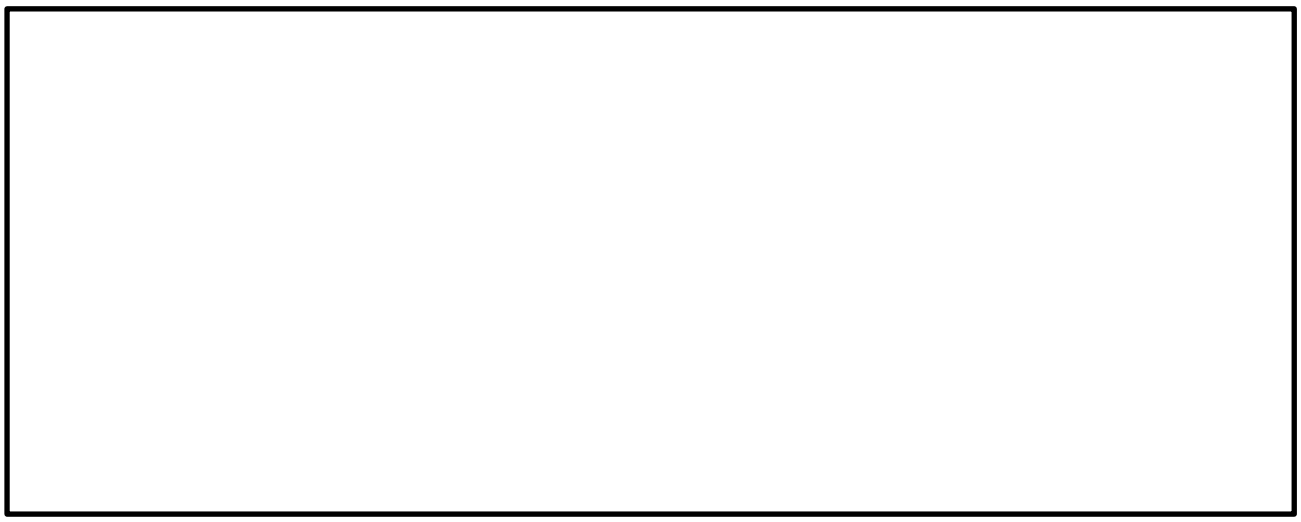

Beginning – Introduce character and setting. Find the shell.

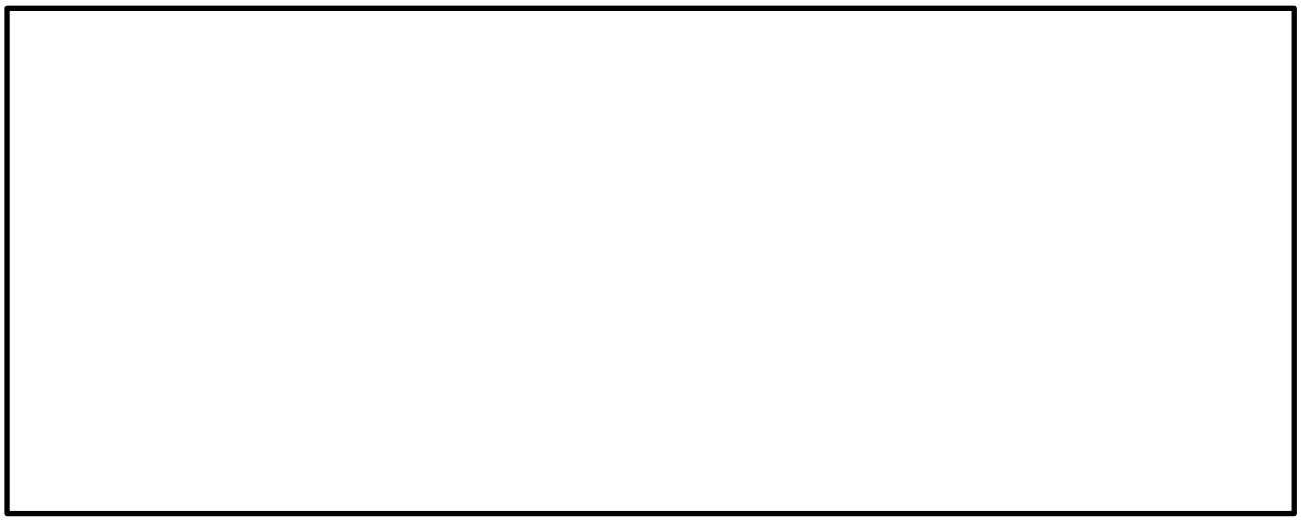

Middle – The problem!

End – The resolution

Now you have your plan, write your story. Don't forget the illustrations!

Spell the words using the o-e and e-e split vowel digraphs. The answers are on the next page.

o-e		e-e
